

First Presbyterian

— R O M E —

And the people of Israel, the whole congregation, came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month, and the people stayed in Kadesh. And Miriam died there and was buried there.

Now there was no water for the congregation. And they assembled themselves together against Moses and against Aaron. And the people quarreled with Moses and said, "Would that we had perished when our brothers perished before the LORD! Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, that we should die here, both we and our cattle? And why have you made us come up out of Egypt to bring us to this evil place? It is no place for grain or figs or vines or pomegranates, and there is no water to drink." Then Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the assembly to the entrance of the tent of meeting and fell on their faces. And the glory of the LORD appeared to them, and the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "Take the staff, and assemble the congregation, you and Aaron your brother, and tell the rock before their eyes to yield its water. So you shall bring water out of the rock for them and give drink to the congregation and their cattle."

And Moses took the staff from before the LORD, as he commanded him.

Then Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together before the rock, and he said to them, "Hear now, you rebels: shall we bring water for you out of this rock?" And Moses lifted up his hand and struck the rock with his staff twice, and water came out abundantly, and the congregation drank, and their livestock. ¹²And the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not believe in me, to uphold me as holy in the eyes of the people of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them." These are the waters of Meribah, where the people of Israel quarreled with the LORD, and through them he showed himself holy.

Confession of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism Q. 1

Leader: People of God, let us declare our faith. What is your only comfort, in life and in death?

ALL. That I belong--body and soul, in life and in death--not to myself but to my faithful Savior, Jesus Christ, who at the cost of his own blood has fully paid for all my sins and has completely freed me from the dominion of the devil; that he protects me so well that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that everything must fit his purpose for my salvation. Therefore, by his Holy Spirit, he also assures me of eternal life, and makes me wholeheartedly willing and ready from now on to live for him.

The Gloria Patri

Praise God from whom all blessings flow. Praise Him all creatures here below.

Praise Him above, ye heavenly host. Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Amen.

"KNOWING GOD", MEN'S BIBLE STUDY TAUGHT BY REV. CHADWICK – All men are invited to join Rev. Chadwick as he leads a 7-week devotional study based on the book "Knowing God" by Dr. J. I. Packer. The study will be offered twice each week: Monday mornings, beginning March 19th from 6:45am – 7:45am and Wednesdays during lunch beginning March 21st, from 12:05pm until 1:00pm (bring lunch if you choose). Sign up by emailing Rev. Chadwick (jeffc@fpcrome.org) or calling the church office at 706-291-6033. Or, simply come to the first week of the study to get a taste of it to see if it is something to which you'd like to commit for the duration of the study.

The book and a study guide may be picked up in the church office. A donation of $10.00 total is suggested to help cover the cost of materials. To help prepare for our discussion at the first session, you are asked to read chapters 1 and 2 in the book, and think through the questions in chapters 1 and 2 of the study guide.

CARRY ON THE CONVERSATION

(Each week we use this space to provide a glimpse into what our children are learning in Children's Worship, and what you might ask to "carry on the conversation" with them at home.)

Key Theme: God's providence over nature

Mark 4:41 "And they were filled with great fear and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Ask: How does God's providence over nature show that there is none like God?

Try to imagine the zillions and zillions of animals and bugs there are in the world.

Think of God being in control of every single one of them, every single moment...through all centuries.

How does this kind of "holy imagination" strengthen your faith?

"LIGHT IN DARKNESS: A STUDY OF THE INCARNATION." - NEW CLASS ON WEDNESDAY NIGHTS STARTING

MARCH 21st - While the church should seek to know and study all the events surrounding Jesus' life, there are some that demand more of our attention than others. The Incarnation of Jesus Christ is one of those events that calls for greater reflection as it is filled with deep mystery and beauty. In the light spectrum of our Immanuel, the hue of God's infinite love and grace shines with great brilliance. The Scriptures teach us that the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. Yet what does this mean? How does this impact my life today? These and other questions will be explored in the class. So join us on Wednesday Nights at 6:15 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall as Rev. Bill Pardue leads us through this 5-week study on the truths and implications surrounding the Incarnation.

GOSPEL-CENTERED DISCERNMENT AND PROTECTION IN THE DIGITAL AGE –

At the conclusion of our January Christ & Culture Forum on Technology, many families asked about practical, detailed ways to safeguard their hearts and homes in the digital age. In light of this, starting Wednesday, March 21 there will be a 5-week class offered that will take a closer look at specific issues, protection, and resources surrounding many topics (such as Social Media, Filters, Apps, Cyberbullying, Texting, Devices, and more) as well strategies and safeguards for the heart as it relates to remaining Gospel-centered on the ever-expanding digital frontier. This class is recommended for parents and non-parents alike, but space is limited - please email Dave Abernathy at dave@abernathyhome.com to sign up!
