

Living Stones (CLC # 203)

“Christ in the Book of Ecclesiastes”

This topic promises to be timely, since everyone will, at times, encounter some sense of meaninglessness. It is reflected in the faces of those we meet each day, it lurks behind every daily headline and is prevalent in the content of most entertainment choices. This study of the wisdom and reflections of Ecclesiastes, like all scripture, points to Christ - even in the midst of an empty world. (teaching team: Tony Pemerton; Dathan Sorrow; Tommy Atha; Aaron Hayes)

Sola Scriptura (Fellowship Hall)

“David: A Man After God's Own Heart”

The Bible speaks of David as a man after God's own heart. We know more about his life than anyone else in Scripture. His life and struggles in many ways mirror our own. That is why we find such comfort and strength from the Psalms. Join us as we study the life of David through the historical narrative and his spiritual biography through the Psalms. Through his life we can learn to live by grace through faith in Christ. (teacher: Kenneth Studdard)

Gospel Life (Hardy Room #1)

Union with Christ: The Way to Know and Enjoy God* by Rankin Wilbourne

To experience why the gospel is good news and answer life's most foundational questions about identity, destiny, and purpose, we must understand what it means to be united to Christ. Nothing is more practical for living the Christian life than union with Christ. The recovery of this reality provides the anchor and engine for your life with God—for your destiny is not only to see Christ, but to actually become like him. (teaching team: Justin Pettegrew; Dave Abernathy; Dan Pate; John Pittman)

Reformations (CLC #205)

Mark: A 12-Week Study* by Dane C. Ortlund

The Gospel of Mark paints an important portrait of Jesus as Israel's promised Messiah. Mark's account also makes clear how Jesus' kingship confounds public expectations by emphasizing his humility, suffering, and sacrifice.

This accessible guide is filled with wise reflections on the biblical text and helps us understand what vibrant faith and authentic discipleship look like as we follow a rejected king. (teaching team: Rob Davis; Brant Evans; Rusty Chadwick; Harris York; Jonathan Whitley)

Berean's (CLC #201)

“The Gospel of Luke”

The Bereans are studying the book of Luke on a chapter by chapter, verse by verse basis in order that as Luke said to Theophilus in chapter 1, that ‘we may receive an orderly account so that we may know with certainty the Gospel we have been taught.’ The goal of our study time together is that teachers and community members alike will better understand our need for Christ and more fully understand His teaching. (teaching team: Tommy Manning; Hollis Reese; Andy Garner)

College & Career (CLC #202)

Why Jesus* by Ravi Zacharias

Having become accustomed to abundance and the bliss of multiple choices, we now have a spiritual supermarket before us from which we may select whatever form of spirituality we desire. But tragically we often choose without knowing how to make a distinction between truth and falsehood. Join us for this study in apologetics...as we learn ways to counter this attack on rational thought and learn how to explain why the uniqueness of Jesus matters. (teaching team: Ben Rooke; Matthew Pinyerd)
